

CORRECTED FISCAL NOTE

HB 2911

February 24, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases the state's single maximum exemption levels for inheritance tax for tax years 2006 through 2009 so they match those specified in the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA). Repeals inheritance tax for tax year 2010 and each tax year thereafter.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

On February 16, 2003, we issued a fiscal note indicating state revenue decreases of $19.9 million, $18.9 million, $22.7 million, and $31.7 million for fiscal years 2006-2007 through 2009-2010 respectively. In addition, a one-time increase in state expenditures was estimated at $8,250. Further, exemption levels for tax years 2010 and beyond were addressed in the "Other Fiscal Impact" portion of the fiscal note. Based on additional information, the estimated fiscal impact of this bill is:

(CORRECTED)

Decrease State Revenues - $19,900,000 FY06-07
$18,900,000 FY07-08
$22,700,000 FY08-09
$31,700,000 FY09-10
$31,200,000 FY10-11 and thereafter

Increase State Expenditures - $8,250 One-Time

Assumptions:

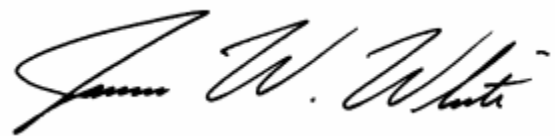

- This bill proposes increases in the state's single maximum exemption levels for inheritance tax from $1.0 million to $2.0 million for calendar years 2006 through 2008 and from $1.0 million to $3.5 million for calendar year 2009.
- Under EGTRRA, federal estate taxes will be repealed for calendar year 2010.
- Provisions of EGTRRA will no longer be effective on January 1, 2011 and the federal estate tax structure will revert to the structure that existed in calendar year 2001.

HB 2911
(CORRECTED)

- Current state law allows filing extensions up to nine (9) months from decedent's death.
- Inheritance tax revenues are collected in the fiscal year subsequent to decedent's death due to filing extension period.
- Inheritance tax is permanently repealed beginning with tax year 2010.
- According to the Department of Revenue, increasing the state's single maximum exemption levels for calendar years 2006 through 2009 will cause state revenues to decrease by approximately $19.9 million, $18.9 million, $22.7 million, $31.7 million, and $31.2 million for FY06-07, FY07-08, FY08-09, FY09-10, and FY10-11 respectively.
- Software modifications required in the DOR to implement the provisions of this proposed legislation is estimated as a one-time state expenditure of $8,250.
- This proposed legislation does not apply to generation-skipping transfers after December 31, 2009 or to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 2009.
